Magically suspended between the blue sky and the iridescent coloured sea, the Amalfi coast seems to be born from the palette of a painter. North of it lays Golfo Di Napoli (Bay of Naples), inlet of the Tyrrhenian Sea enhanced by the steep, mainly volcanic hills including the still-active Mount Vesuvius. Along the shore you will find well-known ruins of the ancient cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum, and Sorrento, a town set in striking beauty of the scenery. Further in the sea is floating idyllic island of Capri.
