

CHRISTMAS TIME IN ALSACE

26.11. - 28.11
2021

Enjoy warm and intimate atmosphere of the Alsatian Christmas markets

1. DAY Arrival to Strasbourg

After arrival to Strasbourg guided tour of the city to discover its centre and different quarters: the Petite France an old tanner's District, the charming half-timbered houses, the gothic cathedral, a sand stone masterpiece made of lace, and its neighbouring house the Maison Kammerzell from the 16th century. Then free time to discover the city and the different Christmas markets and to enjoy the city by night with the thousands of lights bringing a magical air to the squares, roads and alleyways. Dinner at the restaurant. Night in Strasbourg.

2. DAY Strasbourg

Departure on foot from your hotel after breakfast to Alsatian museum where in charming old half-timbered houses, linked together via staircases and wooden passageways, you will find a thousand objects attesting to rural Alsatian life from the 18th to the 19th century including costumes, furnishings, earthenware, toys, etc. Then free time to discover the city on your own and stroll in the charming lanes. Lunch at the restaurant. In the afternoon free time to stroll through the Christmas markets where you will find arts and crafts, typical Alsatian Christmas decorations, delights and specialities. Dinner at the restaurant. Night in Strasbourg.

3. DAY Colmar

Departure from your hotel after breakfast to Colmar for guided tour on foot to discover the history, the different quarters and the highlights like the Maison des Têtes, the house Pfister, the Old Toll house, and the famous Petite Venise, the former fishmonger's district. Then free time to discover the Christmas markets nested in little cottages and dispersed in five different places in the city. Lunch at the restaurant and departure home.
