Hungary is a landlocked country in Central Europe. Spanning 93,030 square kilometres in the Carpathian Basin, it borders Slovakia to the north, Ukraine to the northeast, Austria to the northwest, Romania to the east, Serbia to the south, Croatia to the southwest, and Slovenia to the west. With about 10 million inhabitants, Hungary is a medium-sized member state of the European Union. The official language is Hungarian, which is the most widely spoken Uralic language in the world, and among the few non-Indo-European languages to be widely spoken in Europe.[14] Hungary's capital and largest city is Budapest. Hungary is a land of thermal water. A passion for spa culture and Hungarian history has been connected from the very beginning. Hungarian spas feature Roman, Greek, Turkish, and northern country architectural elements
