5. DAY Menton

In the morning we leave our hotel and we travel by coach to Menton. Once arrived you can start exploring this nice village starting from the promenade. Then you can go for a walk inside the colourful old city centre. During Christmas period, Menton is full of lights and decorations: a perfect place to enter the Christmas atmosphere. In the afternoon we go back to our hotel by coach.

6. DAY Sanremo & Dolceacqua

Our first stop in Sanremo is to admire the Russian Church from the outside (entrance tickets not included). We then take a few steps up to the famous Casinò (one of the only four Casinos in the whole of Italy). We walk along the elegant Via Matteotti with its modern boutiques before entering the "old town". The guide can give to the guests the possibility to take some free time to visit the city or to continue to the "Pigna" historic centre. The walk is uphill and takes us through narrow cobble- stone alleyways which date back to the Middle Ages. Then we travel to Isolabona to have a tasting of local products. After this we travel with our guide to Dolceacqua. With the medieval castle and the donkey-back Roman bridge, this beautiful little village was chosen by Claude Monet as subject for many paintings. Back to the hotel by coach.

7. DAY Departure

Departure after the breakfast.

Located between Mediterranean Sea and Alps, Liguria is a thin layer of land that rises from the sea surface and in a few kilometres, climbing up the hills, reaches the heights of the Alps. We will discover this peculiar region during advent time, from Genova in the east through Sanremo and over the border to Menton and Monaco in the west.
