

CHAMPAGNE

Champagne - sparkling beauty of the landscapes

1. DAY Arrival

Arrival in Reims, the capital of champagne in the evening. Check in at the hotel.

2. DAY Reims, the capital of Champagne (sparkling wine)

After breakfast, we go with a local guide for a guided walking tour of the city. Reims is known for its magnificent Gothic cathedral Notre-Dame de Reims. Then, we will see the palace of Tau. We have lunch in a nice restaurant in the city centre. In the afternoon, we have a guided visit of Maison Mumm, renowned for its Cordon Rouge. Champagne Mumm invites you to visit the beautiful wine cellars and to enjoy a delightful Champagne Tasting.

3. DAY Reims – Hautvillers – Cumières

Departure for a guided tour of the village of Hautvillers. This visit can also be done with electric bikes. Then, visit a family-run vineyard of Ghislain and Marie-José Tribaut, just outside Epernay town. Tastings are held either indoors in a cosy salon, or outside on a sunny terrace with an endless panorama of geometric vineyards. Appreciate a typical Champenois lunch on the banks of the river Marne. In the afternoon, enjoy a cruise with commentary aboard the “Champagne Vallée” boat. Return to your hotel to relax before dinner.

4. DAY Champagne road and Épernay

After breakfast, we start the day with a garden visit; Le Jardin de l'Hôtel de Ville in Epernay. Then, we have a guided visit on foot of the majestic avenue de Champagne with its eclectic architecture, in Renaissance and classical style. The home of the major champagne houses, this world famous avenue has 110 km of wine cellars and over 200 million bottles. It is listed as a UNESCO World Heritage site.

5. DAY Troyes – Bayel

After breakfast head to Troyes, and spend the morning strolling the city's lively medieval streets. Have lunch at a traditional restaurant. After lunch, we will go to Bayel and visit the crystal museum. You will attend a blowing glass demonstration. The tour ends with a champagne tasting in two different crystal glasses. This is the end of your journey.

Departure.
