

ALSACE

Discover historical towns, beautiful landscape and route through vineyards of the Alsace region

At the heart of a region marked with traditions, discover a rich cultural heritage by its past, its many UNESCO listed sites and its knowhow. You will appreciate towns and historical sites, a generous nature and enjoy the local cuisine through food specialities and wines. Alsace is revealed through its castles, charming villages, its world-renowned cities and the wine route.

1. DAY Arrival in Alsace region - Obernai

On arrival to Alsace region we will start with tour in Obernai, a typical little town which still keeps its medieval character, with its fortifications, and its market place from the Middle Age.

2. DAY Wine road - Kayserberg

After breakfast departure for journey along the famous Wine Road, one of the most picturesque in the world with renowned white wines. It leads across rows of undulating, vine-covered hills, and through quaint villages with narrow streets like in Kayserberg.

3. DAY Crest route

Crest route is perfect way to admire the Vosges Mountain passes, round-topped mountains and lakes. Weather permitting we will have a breathtaking view over the plain of Alsace, the Black Forest, Austria, Lichtenstein and the Mont Blanc.

4. DAY Colmar - Eguisheim

Guided tour on foot in Colmar: with a licensed guide we will discover its history, different quarters and the highlights like the Maison des Têtes, the house Pfister, the Old Toll house, and the famous La Petite Venise de Colmar, the former fishmonger's district.

5. DAY Strasbourg and departure

Guided city tour to discover Strasbourg with its world famous Gothic Cathédrale Notre-Dame featuring daily shows from its astronomical clock, including Rhine River cruise. After tour departure home.
