1. DAY Chianti Hills - Montaione

After landing in Florence, we enter directly into the hilly landscape of Tuscany and after a short drive we reach our idyllic hotel near Montaione, a quiet little town with a delightfully maintained centre. The rest of the day is free for you to get acquainted with the resort.

2. DAY Highlights of Florence

Today we will visit Florence, residence of Medici family during medieval time, to discover its countless treasures such as the Basilica Santa Maria Novella, Complex of Santa Maria del Fiore, Piazza del Duomo, the cathedral Santa Maria del Fiore, the Baptistry of San Giovanni, and Giotto's bell tower. Later drive up the other side of the River Arno to Piazzale Michelangelo to admire Florence magical skyline from above. The church of San Miniato al Monte is just a few steps further up the square. A leisurely stroll through the park down to the Arno and back to the hotel ends the day.

3. DAY Chianti - wine tasting in Castello di Meleto

You enter the heart of the wine region and start a walk in Greve in Chianti. Time and time again, beautiful photographs are on your display. In the midst of this fantastic landscape, we reach Castello di Volpaia, which dates back to the early Middle Ages. Drive through the vineyards along the Strada del Chianti to Castello di Meleto. We visit the picturesque castle and taste the well-known drop of the region with a wine tasting.

4. DAY Siena

Today we visit one of the most beautiful cities of the region – Siena. Life in the city revolves around the cobblestone Piazza del Campo. The square is guarded by the all-important Town Hall tower which symbolizes the power of the bourgeoisie. We take a look at the town hall and then stroll to the cathedral, one of the most important Gothic sacred buildings in Italy. Sweet treats await you in the shops of the streets and lanes to be tasted by you.

5. DAY San Galgano - wine tasting in Fattoria

We will visit the monastery of San Galgano. The building is unique because it is the first time in Tuscany to find stylistic elements from the Gothic period. You will visit Rotonda di Montesiepi, San Gimignano. In the late afternoon you reach a Fattoria nearby, to taste homemade specialties and wine at dinner and conclude this day in a cozy round.

6. DAY Monte Oliveto Maggiore - Pienza - Montalcino

In the rather simple abbey of Monte Oliveto Maggiore, you follow the life of St. Benedict with the fresco cycle of Sodoma and Luca Signorelli. In Pienza, the ensemble of the Cathedral, Palazzo Piccolomini and Casa dei Canonici is an ideal example of Renaissance architecture. After a lunch break, the abbey church of Sant'Antimo appears in front of us. Before returning to the hotel, you visit Montalcino with its pretty medieval town center.

7. DAY Badia a Passignano – free afternoon

The last excursion take us today to Badia a Passignano to the abbey of the same name. The monastery is surrounded by gentle slopes, on which the wonderful red wine of this region is cultivated.
