

FLOWERPARADE ZUNDERT

The first weekend
in September

September flower parade in North Brabant province

1. DAY Arrival to North Brabant

Arrival to North Brabant province and check-in at the hotel.

2. DAY Zundert Flower Parade (Sunday) - City Tour Zundert

After breakfast we will visit the world's largest and most impressive flower parade, Zundert Flower Parade in Zundert, the North Brabant town which is also famous for being the birthplace of the world renowned impressionist painter Vincent Van Gogh. During the parade, which is being held on the first Sunday of September, 20 of the most impressive flower floats you'll ever see, each made of countless blossoms, are presented in a flurry of amazement and awe, to the beat of local marching bands. After this event follows City Tour including visit of the Vincent van Gogh House where he was born and raised.

3. DAY 's-Hertogenbosch (Den Bosch) - Canal Cruise

After breakfast we take City Tour in 's-Hertogenbosch, the capital of North Brabant, colloquially known as Den Bosch. We will walk through narrow, characteristic streets, over squares and past famous monuments, historic buildings, wonderful museums, great shops and welcoming cafés and restaurants. Part of the tour is coffee/tea time with Bossche Bol ('chocolate ball', famous local chocolate white cream cake). In the afternoon we will sail the waterways of the river Binnendieze in distinctive open-topped boat which gives you a unique insight into the history, architecture, and culture of 's-Hertogenbosch.

4. DAY Departure

Departure after the breakfast

Holland is famous for its beautiful flower bulb fields that give colour to the typical Dutch landscape. During the world's largest flower parade, Zundert Flower Parade in Zundert, you will see 20 of the most impressive flower floats. This town is also birthplace of impressionist painter Vincent Van Gogh. Another highlight of North Brabant is its capital, the medieval town Den Bosch.
