

BUDAPEST & PUSZTA IN LOW SEASON

01.11 – 28.12.
02.01. – 31.03.

Discover the co-capital of the Austro-Hungarian Empire;
explore vast plains of the Puszta from horse-carriage

1. DAY Arrival in Budapest

Guide will be waiting for the group at the airport and will go with them to the hotel and help with check in. Dinner at the hotel.

2. DAY City Tour - Free afternoon and evening

After breakfast we get acquainted with the most famous sights of the city such as Heroes Square, City Park with Europe's largest thermal spa, Andrassy Avenue, Opera House, St Stephan's Cathedral, Parliament, Chain Bridge, Castle District, Matthias Church, Fishermen's Bastion, and with the most interesting stories of the locals, and general information about history, the city, and life in Hungary. In the afternoon free time. Dinner at the hotel.

3. DAY Puszta Tour with Horse Show

At an hour's drive from Budapest, we arrive to a traditional Hungarian farm. After receiving the greetings of the horsemen, you can taste the famous Hungarian welcome drink, "Barack Pálinka" (Apricot Brandy) and the "Pogácsa" (salty scone). Horsemen will then take you around and through the Puszta by horse-carriage. The program continues with a traditional horse show, which includes several breath-taking field performances. You are then invited for a three-course lunch including the famous Hungarian goulash soup, accompanied by Hungarian gypsy music. The program offers the possibility to ride the horses. After arrival to Budapest late in the afternoon free time. Dinner at the hotel.

4. DAY Free Morning - Danube River Cruise

After free morning we will have a pleasant time on board of any panoramic boat, sailing between the splendid visions of Buda & Pest. Dinner at the hotel.

5. DAY Departure

After the breakfast departure.

Budapest, the capital of Hungary, is full of history and life. The river Danube splits the city into two parts: Buda and Pest. The central area of the city along the Danube River is classified as a UNESCO World Heritage. Further to the east, across vast area of the county, spreads the Pannonian Steppe known locally as the Puszta, a region famous for buffalo herds and horsemen.
